

- 5 10. A method according to claim 9 wherein said signature includes a second component derived from a combination of said one component and said other bit string and said one bit string is recovered utilising said second component.

09390362-090799
662060-29206660